To Our Patrons,

Thank you so much for attending our performances this season and especially for the passion you express for the ASU Kerr Cultural Center. I've enjoyed meeting so many of you and hearing the stories of your long-time attendance at the performances held here at the Kerr, a self-sustaining arts venue. Kerr hosts a wide variety of artists that fulfills the dream Louise Lincoln Kerr had for her studio.

As you know, the economy has impacted just about every aspect of our lives, and certainly the arts are no exception. We are participating in a telephone fund-raising campaign and you may receive a call from an ASU student on behalf of the Kerr Center. If you can contribute, we would appreciate your generosity, if you cannot make a donation at this time we ask that you be kind to the callers – they are working hard on our behalf. Should you miss their call and would like to make a contribution, please feel free to send your donation directly to the Kerr Cultural Center (checks should be made out to ASU Foundation/Kerr Cultural Center), 6110 N. Scottsdale Road, Scottsdale, AZ 85253 or stop by the office in person.

I look forward to hearing more of your stories and experiences at the Kerr. On behalf of the staff at the ASU Kerr Cultural Center thank you again for your support.

MARCH EVENTS

The Jazz Divas:
Nancy Gee, Margo Reed, Sherry Roberson and Delphine Cortez
Wed., March 3 & Thus., March 4, 2010 at 7:30 p.m.
Each of these divas is a star in her own right, so hearing all of them in one concert delivers a study in contrasts and a terrific entertainment value. $24-$29

Arizona Opera—A Concert of Opera Scenes and Arias
Fri., March 5, 2010 at 7 p.m.
This concert is full of beloved arias and ensembles from some of the world's most popular operas. It's full of soaring melodies, tender lyricism, and music to increase your heart's pulse. Brought to you with tremendous emerging talent into the world of opera- it is an evening not to miss. $6

Musica Nova
Of Youth and Leisure
Sun., March 7, 2010 at 4 p.m.
Join us for a comparison of works written for specific people for performances for their own pleasure and other pieces written by very young composers of music they wrote for their own pleasure! The Simple Symphony is based on piano pieces written by Benjamin Britten between the ages of 9 and 12. The Marcello is an arrangement of harpsichord pieces written in the 1720s for an aristocratic patron, while the Warlock is an arrangement of a piece for piano duet written for two impecunious and probably inebriated friends of the composer. $20

Arizona Classic Jazz:
The Original Wildcat Jass Band
Sun., March 14, 2010 at 3 p.m.
The Wildcats will present the music of the Roaring 20s, featuring artists such as Louis Armstrong, Jelly Roll Morton and Paul Whiteman. The Wildcats will play some transcriptions of 1920s recordings and demonstrate the roots of jazz music and improvisation as performed and recorded in the 1920s. $10-$15

"A Rare Pattern"
Starring Margot Kider, Jennifer Nagy, Sanda Schuldmann and Harry Clark
Fri., March 26, 2010 at 8 p.m.
An original theater/classical work using music, poems and literature thought solely of women from the 1880s through the 1940s. $25-$30

ASU Latin Jazz Band, Dom Moio, Director
Wed., March 31, 2010 at 7:30 p.m.
Dom Moio and the ASU Latin Jazz Band hit with a program of the here and now as well as the best of African-Cuban roots. $5
